PAPER RECYCLING: Thank you so much for your support of our parish paper recycling program. For the month of March we have collected over 2 tons of paper. We have saved 34 trees that took 14 years to grow. You are truly good stewards of our earth. If you have not participated yet, please consider saving your newspapers and junk mail and dropping them off in the colorful green and yellow bin located near the Credit Union behind the Parish Family Center.

Shh!!! "STANZIANO'S" is the word. As most of you are aware, Audrey and Joe Stanziano will be retiring at the end of the school year. As part of our celebration of their contributions to the St. Gregory the Great community we would like to compile a "Snapfish" book with photos and quotes from our school family. If you would like to send in a photo or short note, indicating your sentiments about the Stanziano's, it will help create a lasting gift to them. Please scan any photos you would like to include, as we will not be able to return them. All pictures and letters are due to the school office no later than MONDAY, APRIL 19, 2010.

In addition to the "Snapfish" creation, we will also be setting up a website on Facebook, so all family, friends, alumni, students and teachers from the last few decades can contribute their favorite "STANZIANO" memory or story. Details about the website will be forthcoming shortly.

Thank you for your support in creating this gift of love!

Provide Your Electronic Best Wishes/Thoughts to the Stanzianos... We want to allow faculty, staff, students, parents, alumni, parishioners, and others in our community an opportunity to express their best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Stanziano for their fabulous dedication over the years to our school and parish communities. An electronic Guestbook has been set up at www.stgregoryonline.org/stanzianos.html to provide your thoughts. Just click the "Sign Guestbook" link to begin. When you have completed your message, click on the "Post Message" button. A compilation of your thoughts will be provided to the Stanziano's for lasting memoirs.
