

St. Gregory the Great Advisory Board

Minutes June 6, 2002

The meeting was called to order at approximately 7:15 pm. Present were Dan LoPresti, Mark Geyman, Chuck Brown and Lucy Iemmolo. The newly elected board members present were John Amantea, Bob Hostoffer, and Barb Mastroianni. Absent was Fr. Peyton, Greg Stuart, and newly elected board member Tom Dowd. Also attending the meeting was Joe Filippo.

With a quorum of members present election of officers took place. Bob Hostoffer nominated Mark Geyman as Chairperson. Chuck Brown seconded this. No other nominations were made and Mark Geyman was elected Chair. John Amantea nominated Chuck Brown as Vice-Chair. However, Barb Mastroianni nominated Brown as Secretary. Bob Hostoffer seconded the nomination. Brown accepted the nomination as Secretary and no other persons were nominated. Brown was elected as Secretary. Chuck Brown nominated John Amantea as Vice-Chair and Barb Mastroianni seconded the nomination. No other nominations were made and John Amantea was elected as Vice-Chair.

The role of the Board was discussed in light of the formation of a Parish Council /Finance Board. The need to review the Advisory Board Constitution was discussed. Lucy Iemmolo advised the Board that the Student Hand Book needed to be addressed and possibly revised. Presently the Diocesan law department was reviewing the handbook. Chuck Brown advised the new members that Jim Lawler was compiling relevant information for the new board members including copies of the Constitution and past minutes.

The Board discussed scheduling a meeting with Fr. Peyton in the near future to his vision of the Advisory Board and its future role for St. Gregory. Mark Geyman accepted the duty to coordinate that meeting and informing the Board of the date of the meeting. The meeting was adjourned at approximately 8:10 pm. No future meeting date was set.